Unit-I

2. Read the following passage and answer the questions given at the end :

Most of the people, who appear most often in history books are great conquerors and generals. Strangely enough the people who really helped civilization forward are often never mentioned at all. We do not know who made the first boat or calculated the length of the year; but we know all about killers and destroyers. We raise statues to them simply because they fought bravely. But even animals fight. So do savages. To fight is not to be civilized. Moreover, there are ways of settling quarrels among men or nations.

Questions :

- (i) What sort of people generally appear in history books ?
- (ii) How do we know about killers and destroyers ?
- (iii) Write antonyms of civilized and forward.
- (iv) Write meanings of conquerors and civilization.
- (v) Make sentences of bravely and savage. 5×2=10

3. Read the following passage and answer the questions given at the end :

One day, a very old lady was travelling alone in a first class compartment. She was very well dressed. She was sitting in a corner, quietly reading a book. A travelling ticket examiner came into the compartment and asked for her ticket. The old lady looked in her bag for the ticket but couldn't find it. She then looked for it among her other things, but she could not find the ticket there also. So she got very worried and said to the ticket examiner, "Will you please pull the chain and stop the train immediately? I've lost my ticket." The ticket examiner said, "Please don't worry. I know you are an honest woman." "You do not understand," said the old lady, "if I do not find my ticket, how shall I know where I have to get off?"

Questions :

- (i) What was the old lady doing when the ticket examiner came ?
- (ii) Why did the old lady search her bag ?
